

New Bedford: Our Woven Story

A new art installation coming to New Bedford in June 2023 will feature donated & up-cycled fabrics.

FABRIC SUBMISSION GUIDE

Identify $\pmb{\Delta}$ contribute a piece of fabric or textile to be included in a public art installation.

Explore your personal and/or family history through clothing and textiles. Think about how fabric and fashion can represent a story to you and your community.

MATERIAL: 8" x 8" piece of fabric or textile (or similar size)

Drop off your fabrics by May 7th at:

New Bedford Whaling National Historical Park Thursday — Sunday 10:00AM - 4:00PM

(Dropbox located in the lobby)

ARTIST: MAXWELL EMCAYS

Learn more about artist & activist Maxwell Emcays at:

datma.org maxwell.emcays.com

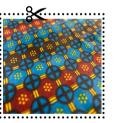

FABRIC SUBMISSION INFO

*Please note: All answers are optional. The text and information you provide on this sheet may appear in an online exhibition about the project on datma.org

Name:
Email:
Age:
Neighborhood:
School/Organiz	ation:

Tell us about the fabric/textile you have chosen to contribute to this project, what it means to you, and why:

EXAMPLES:

African (Malawi) Fabric, 2022

Blue Jean, 2012

Contact programs@datma.org with any questions or collaboration ideas!

Please clip or staple your fabric directly to this paper when submitting